

Privacy Policy

We are committed to protecting your privacy and will only use the information that we hold about you lawfully, in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. This information includes your name, address and email address which is collected when you enter your name, address and/or email address on the site. This personal information will be held securely in accordance with our internal security policy and the law.

We may use technology such as a 'cookie' to monitor users of this site, such as which areas of the site you use most or least often and how often you use the website. A 'cookie' is a piece of data stored on the user's hard drive containing information about the user; it is not linked to any of your personal information on our site.

Our site contains links to websites owned and operated by third parties. These websites have their own privacy policies and we are not able to accept any responsibility or liability with regard to their use.
